

K-love is a very positive station and is very uplifting to a world where there is so much trouble and turmoil. K-love does reach all ages of people. It's a station that our children and families listen to all the time. They support wholesome values and encourage communities all across America.